SANDWELL MUSEUMS AND ARTS SERVICE

are really proud to announce the launch of a brand new project funded by the Ministry of Housing, Communities & Local Government's Windrush Scheme and Sandwell Council's Museums and Arts Service.

commemorating the first wave of Commonwealth citizens travelling to Britain to live, work and make it their home.

WHAT'S IN THE CASE?

is a project is looking for members of the initial

Windrush generation and their descendants who have helped make Britain the diverse and culturally rich place it is today.

We want people to take part in a series of interviews to collect stories and memories of their journey to Britain.
